3) Action by College Administrators

Grambling College, Grambling, Louisiana

On 10/26/67. Grambling College, Grambling, La., advised that since about 10/23/67, there has been some student unrest on the Grambling campus. Originally, a group of unidentified individuals calling themselves "The Informers" began circulating papers on the campus, calling for changes in the college administration and faculty, housing, food services, general living conditions and regulations on campus and they wanted academics stressed more at the college. As of 10/26/67, these protests had developed into a fairly sizable demonstration on the campus and some of the student body had blocked the doors to the Administration Building and were disrupting classes. The Informers were now known as the student leaders or student government at the college.

On 10/27/67, advised that the situation was still considered derious at the college and in view of the homecoming game scheduled for the coming weekend, he was requesting assistance from the Governor of the State of Louisiana, to handle the situation. The decision was made to activate 500 National Guardsmen and have them stationed at Ruston, La., so they could be used in the event efforts were made by the student protestors to disrupt the homecoming game.

On 10/28/67, the homecoming game was played as scheduled at Grambling, and no incidents occurred.

On 10/30/67, the college expelled thirty-four students as the leaders of the demonstrations and were considering less severe action against 150 additional students. The Guard was called to the campus to keep peace under the assumption the expulsions would bring more protests.

By 10/31/67, no incidents had occurred, so the Guard was moved back to Ruston, La., and the last contingent was released on 11/1/67.

After the thirty-four students were expelled, U. S. District Judge BEN C. DAWKINS, JR., issued a restraining order stating the students could not be expelled without a hearing and he reinstated the students.

On 11/27/67, a hearing by the disciplinary committee of the college was held and twenty-nine students were again expelled. On that same date, Judge DAWKINS issued a clarifying order stating that the students were to remain in school until they had exhausted all of the appeals at their disposal.

CONFIX

On 12/6/67, the State Board of Education upheld the expulsion of the twenty-nine students.

However, after the leaders were expelled and the National Guard was called to the area, the demonstrations fell off to only a few of the hard core confidentially advised that there were six members of the Grambling faculty he considered as having encouraged these student demonstrations. One of these left the Grambling campus and the area shortly after the demonstrations were stopped. The other five are still instructors at the college, but they have received letters that their contracts to teach at Grambling would not be renewed for the next school year. They were given no reason and as these letters only say that they will not be employed for the coming year, they cannot consider themselves as being fired.

The BBRPSO stationed a large number of patrol units at the entrances of the SUBR, allowing no one to enter unless he was a student at SUBR. By keeping out outside agitators, no incidents arose out of the rally.

On or about 4/25/67, a Negro watchman at SUBR fired into a group of Negro student demonstrators, wounding several with shell fragments. Negro students at SUBR immediately announced plans for proposed demonstrations; however, the college administrators immediately contacted the EBRPSO, Baton Rouge, La. The EBRPSO dispatched a large number of units to SUBR and effectively sealed off the area so that no outside agitators could enter the campus of SUBR, with the result that there were no demonstrations at SUBR over the incident.

JUBIECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
INTERNAL SECURITY

The scope of New Left (NL) organizations has broadened in the New Orleans Division within the past six months, especially in the city of New Orleans. Although there is a strong indication that NL activity will slacken in New Orleans during the summer months because of summer vacations, the need for a Counterintelligence Program in New Orleans against the New Left is very evident.

General suggestions for potential counterintelligence action against NL organizations in New Orleans are outlined below.

NEWS MEDIA

New Orleans should make use of highly selected members of the news media to expose programs and activities of NL organizations. This may be accomplished by tipping off news media to secret or closed meetings, for example. The possibility of utilizing this method may be realized if the Southern Regional Conference of SDS, originally scheduled for New Orleans for April 11-14, 1968, were rescheduled at a later date.

100-2/49692-33-20

The news media might also be furnished with NL plans to infiltrate a specific union, or to operate an NL school. This information would be furnished on a selected basis to show the NL in an unfavorable light.

II. MAILINGS

Leaflets could be mailed to NL members furnishing false information concerning the scheduling or canceling of NL meetings, or fictitious information regarding the rescheduling of a National Conference.

MI. TELEPHONE CALLS

The NL has set up a limited draft counseling service in New Orleans, whereby recipients of leftist publications are invited to call a given phone number and set up an appointment for draft counseling. NL representatives have traveled as far as Baton Rouge, La., to talk to prospective draft resisters and their families. Telephone calls made on the pretext of being a draft resister could set up phony appointments, with the result that draft resister counselors would not know whether a call was legitimate or not, possibly resulting in unnecessary travel and additional expense for the NL organization.

Information was recently developed that an attempt to organize SDS chapters in two high schools in New Orleans was imminent. An anonymous telephone call to the parents of the high school students involved in this program, advising them of their child's involvement, might effectively curtail the development of SDS chapters in secondary schools. Prior to making this call, the names of the parents would be determined and checked through Indices for any subversive or derogatory references.

IV. NL MEMBERS EMPLOYED IN KEY POSITIONS

Examples of such employment might be an official position in a labor union, employment in the registrar's office of a university, a teaching position in a secondary school, or employment in a poverty or welfare program. The pending upon the circumstances, an employer could be advised a ponymously of his employee's background, or news media, on selected basis, could be advised of such employment.

Y. STINK BOMES

The use of stink bombs in the air conditioning or heating elements of any large or important NL meeting could be very effective if the building where the meeting was held was under the control of the NL organization.

VI. CREATING DISSENSION THROUGH INFORMANTS

Informants could be instructed to drop comments at appropriate times which could create dissension among NL members. Informants might also be able to broaden any existing splits between factions of the NL.

XII. VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL, STATE, AND LOCAL LAWS

New Orleans will continue to remain alert for any infractions of Federal, State, and local laws by NL members, notifying appropriate authorities of any violations.

No specific recommendations for immediate counterintelligence action are being submitted at this time, pending evaluation and analysis of the NL organizations in New Orleans as to what such action might best be suited to the New Orleans area. New Orleans will submit a request for Eureau authority prior to employing any such action.

It is noted that New Orleans has no key activists in NL organizations.

SUBJECT:

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM-INTERNAL SECURITY DISRUPTION IN THE NEW LEFT

Re Bureau letter to all offices, 5/28/68.

entitled "New Left Activities - Xavier University, 7325 Palmetto Street, New Orleans, La."

Xavier University, who made available the information in the enclosed LHM, is an established source of the New Orleans Office. It is a young school executive who maintains extremely close contact with the student body and in his judgment, he is able to keep abreast of the development of any unrest among the student body. He is aware of the Bureau's interest in the COMINFIL of student organizations and from his comments, he is apparently well aware of the nature of organizations such as the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). He is most cooperative and it is felt that he will keep the New Orleans Office fully advised in the forthcoming school year of any indications that disruptive incidents are in the making or if there emerges on the Xavier Campus any student leaders who appear to be in sympathy-with the New Left.

In the event information is received during the forthcoming academic year that New Left organizations or related groups are surfacing on the Xavier Campus, prompt action will be initiated to develop among these groups appropriate sources of information in order that efficient coverage is acquired.

As indicated by the late there does not appear hat this time any potential for violence on the Xavier Campus during the academic year of 1968-1969; but keeping in mind that there is an SDS organization in New Orlans as noted by the well organized Tulane University SDS, this office will remain the property of the SDS or New Left organizations or Xavier University has a normal student enrollment of 1,200 individuals and is primarily a highly accredited Negro university.

New Left Organizations

There have been no known New Left organizations on the Xavier University campus and as far as it is known to school officials, there are no plans by students to apply for a charter in the name of any New Left organizations.

School officials are alert to the possibility that representatives of New Left organizations from other school campuses in the area might attempt to influence the student body but as yet no such influence has been detected. Xavier University officials are prepared to deny charter to New Left organization in the event such a charter is submitted for approval.

Occurrence of Disruptive Activities on Xavier University Campus during the School Year 1967-1968

School officials have not observed any organized protest against school rules and regulations or policies and the only disruptive incident that took place on campus during the past academic year occurred on April 17, 1968. At this time Tulane University in New Orleans, was experiencing student protests and as a result unrest among some Xavier students was sensed. On April 17, 1968, approximately ten per cent or less of the students staged a boycott of classes and there was sporadic picketing on campus. This was not a well organized effort and when school officials confronted the students during picketing demonstrations and asked them what objectives or demands they had in mind, the students were not prepared to furnish an answer, other than to say that they wanted more freedom. School officials met with the student governing board on April 17, 1968 and advised the board that if there were any students on campus who had specific demands to make, they should be formally submitted through the student board. No such demands were ever submitted and the demonstration expired before the day was over.

There have been no other incidents since that date and school officials are convinced that it was merely a result of the unrest among students taking place on other campuses in the city. No ring leaders of the demonstration at Xavier University on April 17. 1968 were identified and school officials feel there are probably none in existence. School officials were suspicious at that time that possibly some of the ring leaders of the Tulane University Students for a Democratic Society (TUSDS) may have attempted to direct some disruption by contacting some students but this was never proved and was only a suspicion to begin with.

School officials at Xavier have no information and no reason to believe that there will be attempts to organize New Left organizations on campus during the 1968-1969 school year or that there will take place disruptive incidents. The school officials are, however, fully prepared to detect any formation of these type organizations and are fully prepared to deny formal recognition of such organizations.

NEW LEFT ACTIVITIES - XAVJER UNIVERSITY

School officials have no information to indicate that any member of the faculty participated in the Xavier Campus incident on April 17, 1968 and they have no information to indicate that any faculty member will encourage student unrest in the forthcoming academic year.

In addition, New Orleans is currently preparing letters to request Bureau authority to interview two other individuals who attend LSUNO. One individual, if was recently discharged from the U. S. Air Force and served in OSI. A second individual, is junior at the school.

Inasmuch as will not return to the LSUNO campus in the fall, is hopeful that there will be considerably less SLF activity.

Because of the above, it is felt, at this time, that there is relatively little potential for violence on the LSUNO campus during this coming school year.

NEW LEFT ACTIVITIES -LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY IN NEW ORLEANS

Identity of New Left Organization on the Campus

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is familiar with activities on the campus of Louisiana State University in New Orleans (LSUNO), advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as follows:

On the campus of LSUNO there is one organization which could be considered a part of the so-called New Left. It is the Student Liberal Federation (SLF) and has a membership of twenty-five individuals. During March, 1968, the SLF was accepted at a national convention of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) as a local chapter of the National SDS.

A characterization of SDS is contained in the appendix section of this document.

The leadership of SLF, however, never applied to university officials for recognition of SLF as a local chapter of the National SDS. Thus, the organization continued to function on the campus as the SLF and not as an SDS chapter.

DECLASSIVIED BY 6080 --

ENCLOSURE

The SLF is anti-university and anti-establishment. The leadership will not communicate with the authorities at the university and refuses to discuss their plans, programs, or problems with university authorities. They will, however, discuss with university authorities programs which they know the university will not approve.

The organization is revolutionary in the sense that it attacks the policies, procedures, regulations, and authorities within the university. The hardcore leadership of the SLF desires to completely destroy the university as it exists. The leadership desires that the students own and operate the university. They desire complete control of the university and desire complete freedom to do as they please.

The hardcore leadership of the SLF is not interested in participating in university committees to suggest and formulate university programs or policies. They desire to assume cower and determine and implement their own ideas. If they were to assume complete control of the university, they state that they would set up a so-called "participatory democracy." Theoretically, each student would then nave a say in decision making at the university.

The hardcore leadership of the SLF is not interested in bringing about reform at the university and they are not interested in encouraging reasonable regulations on the campus. They are interested in the overthrow of the university as an institution. Regardless of what university authorities do to meet their demands they are unsatisfied and continually work towards bringing about a confrontation.

The hardcore has never given university authorities of any credit for repachationess. The mandcore continues to test of the product of the state of

Summary of Campus Disruptive Activities by SLF

(1) During November, 1967, the SIF at ISUNO applied for and received permission from university authorities to demonstrate on the campus to protest recruiting by the military on the campus and to protest the Vietnam war. The demonstration was planned to coincide with Air Force recruitment at LSUNO during one day in November. From approximately 10:00 AM until approximately 3:00 PM, a maximum of sixteen SLF members carried signs protesting the war and the Air Force in front of the university center on the campus. During the demonstration some of the students who were not SLF members became upset and angry. It was with extreme difficulty that these students were prevented from attacking the demonstrators. There, however, was some egg throwing by these students at the demonstrators. In addition, some demonstrators were allegedly "roughed up" after leaving the demonstration area.

While the demonstration was occurring the recruiters from the Air Force were able to effectively recruit in the university center. Upon their departure from the campus the demonstrators dispersed.

(2) Prior to April 1, 1968, members of the SLF distributed a leaflet on campus which protested the university regulation requiring that students wear appropriate dress on the campus. University regulations prohibit the wearing of shorts and slacks on the campus. The SLF, in their leaflet, protested this regulation and encouraged students to wear slacks and shorts on April 1, 1968. On April 1, 1968, approximately twenty students appeared on the campus in an unkempt manner.

No action was taken against these students by university authorities, and no violence erupted as a result of the above.

The SLF has not raised the above issue subsequent to April 1, 1968.

(3) During mid April. 1968, the SLF distributed a leaflet in the university center on the campus without the approval of university authorities. Source explained that university policy requires that an organization obtain prior approval before they are allowed to distribute leaflets on the campus. The SLF leaflet distributed merely reflected that the organization did not have permission to distribute the leaflet and that the leaflet was illegal.

The incident was looked upon as "childish nonsense" by university authorities, and no action was taken against SLF because of the distribution of the leaflet. No violence erupted because of the incident.

Subsequent to the distribution of the above leaflet the SLF has made no effort to re-raise the issue involved.

The gave the SLF members "the signal." The SLF members hissed and boosed. They then chanted "Here comes the judge," and verbally harassed the speaker. During a question and answer session they asked "loaded" questions and made every effort to embarrass him.

a member of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating (SNCC) and was, at the time, under indictment for murdering a police officer in Houston, Texas.

A characterization of SNCC is contained in the appendix section of this document.

Because as under indictment for murder, the university denied the SLF authority to allow to speak on the campus.

The SLF then obtained the services of an attorney the the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) who filed an injunction in Federal court in New Orleans to force the university to allow to speak.

A U. S. District Judge in New Orleans, Frederick J. R. Heebe, ruled in favor of SLF. was allowed to speak.

This decision was a victory for the SLF and a defeat for the university. As a result, the SLF became considerably more militant and was overjoyed because of the victory. In addition, the Student Congress at LSUNO passed a resolution condemning the university. The student newspaper also took the side of the SLF and condemned the university decision.

Prior to Judge Heebe's decision, the university maintained effective control over the SLF. After the decision, the control of the university was less effective.

Shortly after the decision, however, the school year came to a close and the SLF ceased to function on the campus.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientions objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete centrol by students. Cus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18,1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student NonViolett Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Welson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960 A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that spring brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer of the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin America Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States' involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful, it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said, "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note, Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF)

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) was cited as a Communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947. In the same house report, "The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SCHW.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW dated April 26, 1946, changed its name to the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated (SCEF) and stated its purpose to be to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions and ideals.

The masthead of the April, 1967, issue of "The Southern Patriot" indicates that it is the publication of SCEF, editorial and business offices of which are located at 3210 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky, Eastern office of which is located at Suite 412, 799 Broadway, New York City, New York. "The Southern Patriot" is published once each month, except July. SCEF is stated to be dedicated to ending discrimination based on race, creed, color, sex, national origin or economic condition.

The SCEF is self-described as having deep roots in the South where it began as the educational wing of the SCHW, organized in 1933 to work for economic and political reform. When the SCHW disbanded in the late 1940's, SCEF continued as an independent organization, rallying support for integration and democracy and helping to stimulate and nurture new movements of the early 1960's. The SCEF maintained headquarters in Louisiana for twenty years, but in 1966 moved its headquarters to Louisville, Kentucky.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on June 3, 1966, that during the time that the SCHW was in existence, members of the Communist Party were members of and worked actively in the SCHW; however, since the formation of the SCEF, Communist Party members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a Communist Party front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial issue.

A third source advised on May 25, 1966, that a Communist Party functionary, expressed that the SCEF is the best organization in the South as far as doing effective work is concerned and that they have a

Potential Counterintelligence Action

General recommendations as to potential counterintelligence action were submitted to the Bureau by referenced New Orleans letter, 5/29/68. In addition to these recommendations it is believed that well placed comments concerning New Left members as possible Agents or rightist sympathizers could raise doubts and suspicions on the part of other members of the movement and possibly cause dissension and factionalism, ch the result that persons in the movement believed an influential black power leader who was meeting with New Left advocates, might be a police informant. It is felt that on a highly selective basis, this method could be employed with excellent results.

(2) Pending Counterintelligence Action

The New Orleans Division does not have any pending counterintelligence action at this time, it being noted in referenced Bureau letter that no counterintelligence action may be initiated without specific Bureau authorization. Recommendations for specific counterintelligence action will be submitted to the Burer separate communication on a continuing basis.

Inasmuch as the school year is over, activities of the New Left have noticeably diminished and in fact, only a few members in the various New Loft groups meet with any regularity. From time to time there will be a need to implement counterintelligence action during the summer and such recommendations will be made.

On June 26, 1968, Grambling College, advised that he did not believe there was any organization, either now or in the past, on the Grambling campus which he would consider a New Left organization. He stated that during the latter part of October, 1967, there was an organization on campus that called itself the "Informers." This group was made up entirely of college students.

This group was made up entirely of college students.

Commented that the "Informers" published a list of their objectives in the beginning of the demonstrations. This list was contained in an article entitled "The Grambling Protest Movement," which appeared in the "MDS Newsletter," December, 1967, Volume 1, Number 12 issue. The "MDS Newsletter" is the official publication of the New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society (NOMDS). The NOMDS is a chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

advised that the objectives of the "Informers" called for changes in college administration and faculty, housing, food services, general living conditions, and regulations on campus, and called for more stress on academics at Grambling. Some of the mandates as expressed by the above article were directed towards individuals on the faculty and in the administration, calling for their expulsion.

Ladded that the students' protests and demonstrations were strictly for promotion of changes that they desired on the Grambling campus. Students also felt that athletics were being stressed too much at Grambling and that more emphasis should be placed on the academic life.

SIUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18,1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

NEW ORLEANS MOVEMENT FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (NOMDS)

A confidential source advised on February 3, 1966, that a group which identified itself as the New Orleans Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NOCEWV), planned to hold a demonstration to protest United States policy in Vietnam, during February, 1966, in New Orleans, Louisiana. A party was also planned during February for the purpose of forming a permanent "peace group" which would be known as the NOCEWV.

The July, 1966, edition of "The New Orleans Freedom Press," self-described publication of the NOCEWV, indicated that the NOCEWV had been reorganized.

A second confidential source advised on March 16, 1967, that during a meeting of the NOCEWV on March 12, 1967, its name was changed to the New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society (NOMDS), and a constitution was adopted.

A third confidential source advised on November 6, 1967, that at an NOMDS meeting held November 5, 1967, it was announced that the NOMDS had been accepted as a local chapter of the national Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

A fourth confidential source advised on May 24, 1968, that the NOMDS continues to hold meetings and participate in activities which follow the national SDS line.

The November, 1967, Volume 1, Number 11, issue of the "MDS Newsletter", a monthly publication of the New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society (NOMDS), contains an article which reflects that the first meeting of the Tulane University Students for a Democratic Society (TUSDS) was held September 28, 1967, and was attended by about sixty persons. The article continues that a constitution was accepted for presentation to the Student Senate and committees were set up to deal with military incursions on campus such as the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) Program, military recruiting, and Defense Department Research contracts. The December, 1967, Volume 1, Number 12, issue of "MDS Newsletter" contained an article written by page thirteen, which reflects that the Executive Council of the Student Senate at Tulane University threatened to resign on February 1, 1968, if, by that time certain concessions toward "the Student Power" had not been conceded by the administration. The article continued that it was SDS' task to mobilize the entire Tulane University student body behind the Student Senate's threatof resignation.

The April, 1968, Volume 2, Number 4, issue of the "MDS Newsletter" contained an article on page three and six entitled "Student Power at Tulane University". This article reflects that during the first two weeks in March, 1968, students at Tulane University participated in demonstrations against the school administration and Board of Administrators as a result of Dean of Students John H. Stibbs' decision not to allow two photographs, which he deemed lewd and indecent, to appear in a Tulane literary magazine called "Sophia." Two protest marches on Tulane University President Longenecker's house took place involving 300 persons on the first evening and 700 individuals on the second evening. The first night of the demonstration, approximately 300 students refused to leave the Tulane University Center until a satisfactory answer was given to the students regarding the above refusal by Stibbs.

The article further reflects that President Longenecker addressed about 2,000 students, stating that he wished to meet with responsible student leaders more frequently. The article claims that this was Longenecker's first address to the student body in his six years as President.

Tulane University, New Orleans, advised on June 13, 1968, that a confrontation by students with the school administration took place in early March, 1968, as a result of whether or not two photographs should be published in a school publication known as "Sophia".

The following day, approximately 400 to 500 students again met at the University Center and marched that evening to Longenecker's home. Again there were no incidents and the crowd dispersed. #### NEW ORLEANS MOVEMENT FOR A DEMOCRATIC SCCIETY (NOMDS

A confidential source advised on February 3, 1966, that a group which identified itself as the New Crleans Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NOCEWV), planned to held a demonstration to protest United States policy in Vietnam, during February, 1966, in New Orleans, Louisiana. A party was also planned during February for the purpose of forming a permanent "peace group" which would be known as the NOCEWV.

The July, 1966, edition of "The New Oricans Freedom Press," self-described publication of the NOCEWV, indicated that the NOCEWV had been reorganized.

A second confidential source advised on March 16, 1967, that during a meeting of the NCCEWV on March 12, 1967, its name was changed to the New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society (NCMDS), and a constitution was adopted.

A third confidential source advised on November 6, 1967, that at an NOMDS meeting held November 5, 1967, it was announced that the NCMDS had been accepted as a local chapter of the national Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

A fourth confidential source advised on May 24, 1968, that the NOMDS continues to hold meetings and participate in activities which follow the national SDS line.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), formerly known as the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP would have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary Socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its mittee was elected to direct the Party until the next convention.

According to the article "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by they were expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine; "Challenge," a monthly New York City newspaper; and "Spark," a west coast newspaper.

The April, 1967, issue of "Challenge," page 14, states that "This paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police courts, and the entire government of every level."

A second source advised on September 26, 1966, that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Eox 808, Brooklyn, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF)

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) was cited as a Communist front by the House Committee on . Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947. In the same house report, "The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SCHW.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW dated April 26, 1946, changed its name to the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated (SCEF) and stated its purpose to be to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions and ideals.

The masthead of the April, 1967, issue of "The Southern Patriot" indicates that it is the publication of SCEF, editorial and business offices of which are located at 3210 West Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky, Eastern office of which is located at Suite 412, 799 Broadway, New York City, New York. "The Southern Patriot" is published once each month, except July. SCEF is stated to be dedicated to ending discrimination based on race, creed, color, sex, national origin or economic condition.

The SCEF is self-described as having deep roots in the South where it began as the educational wing of the SCHW, organized in 1933 to work for economic and political reform. When the SCHW disbanded in the late 1940's, SCEF continued as an independent organization, rallying support for integration and democracy and helping to stimulate and nurture new movements of the early 1960's. The SCEF maintained headquarters in Louisiana for twenty years, but in 1966 moved its headquarters to Louisville, Kentucky.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on Junc 3, 1966, that during the time that the SCHW was in existence, members of the Communist Party were members of and worked actively in the SCHW; however, since the formation of the SCEF, Communist Party members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a Communist Party front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial issue.

A third source advised on May 25, 1966, that

Communist Party functionary, expressed great admiration for Carl and Anne Braden and the SCEF, with which they are affiliated, and expressed the view that the SCEF is the best organization in the South as far as doing effective work is concerned and that they have a better idea of what they are doing, where they are heading, and influence other organizations for the better.

The second source also advised on June 3, 1966, that many people who are officials and supporters of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means Communists.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a corrent program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Cos Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18,1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE_PROGRAM INTERNAL SECURITY DISRUPTION OF THE NEW LEFT

Re Bureau letter to Albany, 5/10/68; Bureau letter to Charlotte, 8/12/68; and New Orleans letter to the Bureau, 7/3/68.

1. POTENTIAL COUNTERINTELLIGENCE ACTION

New Orleans has experienced the recent development of SDS Chapters in several high schools in the New Orleans Some of the students involved with these organizations do not understand the true goals and aims of the SDS. In many instances parents of these students are not aware that their children have become involved with SDS. is felt that anonymous letters or telephone calls to the parents of these students advising them of their child's affiliation with SDS may help to curtail their success in building SDS Chapters in the high schools.

The New Orleans Police Department, Intelligence Division, has utilized a counterintelligence method which ... has proved to be effective in several instances. It has been determined through sources and informants that the Leftist Movement in the New Orleans area is particularly concerned about the infiltration of police or other agencies infiltrating agents into the various Leftist groups. a highly selective basis, verbal inferences and fabricated evidence could be produced to make a leader or member of an organization such as SDS appear to be a police agent, thereby nullifying his effectiveness and possibly resulting in his expulsion from the movement.

3. TANGIBLE RESULTS

No demonstrations have occurred on college or university campuses in the State of Louisiana as a direct result of leadership provided by the New Left. The President of Tulane University, along with the Board of Directors, prepared a letter which was made available to all students entering Tulane University in September, 1968, which indicated that the university would take firm action against any student who disrupted the normal business routine of the university. This letter was drawn up during the summer of 1968 and was distributed to each student at Tulane University in order that everyone could understand the administration's position with regard to disruption on the campus.

1. POTENTIAL COUNTERINTELLIGENCE ACTION

New Orleans has under investigation four high school SDS chapters. These chapters by themselves have not been effective because of lack of central organization; however, the New Orleans Citywide High School SDS (NOHSSDS) chapter, which is made up of various members of high school SDS chapters, has found leadership through one Without leadership, the high school SDS program would have no cohesiveness. It is believed that concentration on exposing contacts with various New Left (NL) individuals and groups in the New Orleans area might tend to minimize his effectiveness in organizing an SDS movement in New Orleans high schools.

The Tulane University (TU) campus has a new publication called "The Catalyst," which is published by unnamed students from TU. This publication is right-wing in nature and has been utilized as an expose sheet concerning certain members of the NL. On two occasions, "The Catalyst" inferred that members of the NL, who are in leadership positions, were actually informants for various agencies. The information concerning their activities and background was accurate, and lent credibility to the inferences. As a

The New Orleans Division continues to maintain contact with established sources in colleges and universities in Louisiana regarding possible formation of SDS chapters on campus. Such cooperation with officials at Northwest Louisiana State College at Natchitoches, La., concerning the Student Action Committee, and with officials at Louisiana State University in New Orleans (LSUNO) concerning the Student Liberal Federation (SLF) has been effective. A close liaison is being maintained with these institutions of higher learning in order to bring to the attention of established sources any plans for development or expansion of NL activities on campus.

3. TANGIBLE RESULTS

The Tulanc University SDS (TUSDS) chapter has not been an effective NL group during the Fall Semester of 1968, inasmuch as there are varying opinions on plans and programs for the organization. Most of the persons attending meetings are liberals. This dissension and lark of leadership can be attributed to the withdrawal of the persons attending meetings and coordinator of TUSDS, who has stepped down from a leadership capacity to that of solely attending meetings. Was mentioned in an article in "The Catalyst" which inferred that he had furnished information to a Government agency. Since this article appeared, members of TUSDS do not consider him to be suitable for leadership of the TUSDS.

No major demonstrations have occurred on college ir university campuses in the state of Louisiana as a direct result of leadership provided by the NL.

4. MISCELLANEOUS

New Orleans is continuing to develop sources and informants who can furnish information on the activities of NL organizations. New Orleans will continue to be alert for new methods of counterintelligence value and will submit recommendations for such action by separate communication.

The hard line taken by school authorities has diminished the effectiveness of the activities. During January and February, 1969, a combined investigation by Natchitoches Parish Sheriff's Office and Police Department resulted in the arrests of seventeen students from Northwestern State College, Natchitoches, Louisiana, among which were leaders and instigators of the SDS movement at Northwestern. The SDS chapter at Northwestern became splintered and disorganized as a result of these arrests.

Anti-ROTC demonstrations were held on campus at Tulane University (TU), New Orleans, Louisiana, during April and May, 1969, resulting in the TU Administration taking action against twenty-one demonstrators. that disciplinary action be taken against twenty-one students ranging from a letter of reprimand and probation to full suspension. No further significant disruption or demonstrations have occurred at TU since the above action was taken.

The National Security Council of the Chamber of Commerce of the New Orleans area submitted a resolution supporting the firm action taken by TU administrators concerning the anti-ROTC demonstrations mentioned above. They also stated their support for the ROTC program in colleges and universities throughout the United States. On 5/20/69, the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce approved and adopted the above resolutions. These were forwarded to the United States Chamber of Commerce, state legislators, and university officials.

in the New Left appeared in the Times Picayune, a New Orleans daily newspaper. The articles, written by CLARENCE DOUCET, pointed out the aims and purposes of SDS, some of SDS' activities, and the subversive background of some of its leaders and members. These articles were informative and well received, creating interest throughout the South Louisiana area.

SDS and other New Left activity in New Orleans have lessened with the coming of summer vacation. Although there are numerous students attending summer school, it is not felt that the college campuses will have significant New Left activities during the summer of 1969.

As noted in referenced New Orleans letter to the Bureau, a group of Progressive Labor Party (PLP) members and associates departed New Orleans during March and April, 1969, by order of PLP national headquarters in New York City for the purpose of relocating and organizing on the East and West Coasts. These individuals were members of the New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society (NOMDS), a local chapter of SDS in New Orleans. Although a few PLP sympathizers remain in New Orleans, the recent split of the PLP faction from the National Collective Faction at the National Convention of SDS held 3/18-22/69, at Chicago, Illinois, should prevent a coalition of SDS factions in New Orleans in the fall of 1969.

As a result of the SSOC membership meeting which took place at Mt. Beulah Training Center, Edwards, Miss., in June, 1969, no further SSOC activity has been experienced in the New Orleans Division. Former SSOC leaders and are now concentrating their efforts in organizing SDS in high schools.

The New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society (NOMDS) has not held regular meetings during the summer of 1969; however, leader of the NOMDS, has held Marxist-Leninist discussion groups from time to time.

capitalize on the differences between these two groups for the purpose of further alienating the two factions.

New Orleans does not have any pending counterintelligence action at the present time. It is noted that the school year of 1969-1970 has just begun and as yet there has been little New Left and SDS activities on the college campuses in the New Orleans Division. It is further noted in referenced New Orleans letter to Bureau, 8/27/69, that there was comparatively little SDS activity in the New Orleans area during the summer of 1969.

New Orleans is remaining alert for opportunities to utilize counterintelligence activities with regard to the New Left and will submit all recommendations for such action for Bureau approval on an individual basis.

of the Progressive Labor Party/Workers Student/Alliance (PLP/WSA) faction within SDS, recently contacted DAVID DYBEK, an SDS member in New Orleans, and advised him that there would be a National Council (NC) meeting of faction in New Orleans around 12/26/69 for approximately live to seven days. stated that a meeting facility was needed that would hold approximately 1,500 persons. He added that his organization could go up to $5,000 for rent regarding this facility. stated that when the meeting facility was lined up he would fly to New Orleans to sign the contract. Several places have been mentioned as prospective meeting places in New Orleans. Among those was McAllister Hall on the Tulane University campus and an International Longshoremen's Association union hall, location unknown, somewhere in New Orleans.

New Orleans requests Bureau authority to implement the following counterintelligence measures:

- 1)  $\cdot$  That appropriate officials be notified at Tulane University of SDS's interest in holding an NC at McAllister Hall with the objective of this contact being the denial of the facility for use by SDS.
- That the International Longshoremen's Association be contacted to determine which of their facilities could accommodate 1.500 persons; then contact would be made with officials who are established sources to request that union facilities be denied SDS for their use during the NC.

ReBuairtel set forth information that the National Council meeting of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) would be held at Woolsley Hall, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, on 12/27-31/69.

In view of the information that the National Council meeting has been scheduled to be held in New Haven it would not appear appropriate at this time to carry out the measures set forth in relet.

Your suggestions in this regard are appreciated and you should continue to give this Program your continued attention.

NOTE:

By relet, New Orleans advised that it had information regarding the possibility that the National Council of SDS/Worker-Student Alliance faction would possibly be held in New Orleans. New Orleans suggested several measures to alert various agencies in the area to this fact with a view toward precluding SDS from using their facilities for the Council meeting. We have subsequently learned that the Council meeting will be held in New Haven and, therefore, action by New Orleans will not be necessary.

Re New Orleans letters, 10/7/69 and 11/28/69; and Bureau letter, 12/18/69.

In referenced New Orleans letter, 11/28/69, New Orleans recommended several counterintelligence measures regarding a SDS National Council meeting to be held possibly in New Orleans around 12/26/69. Subsequent developments caused the National Council to be held in New Haven, Connecticut, and New Orleans was unable to utilize these measures.

New Orleans does not have any pending counterintelligence action at the present time, however, this Division will remain alert for opportunities to utilize counterintelligence activities with regard to the New Left and will submit all recommendations for such action for Bureau approval on an individual basis.

Enclosed for the Bureau is a copy of an article which appeared in the 4/14/70 edition of "The Times Picayune" a daily New Orleans, Louisiana, newspaper, entitled "Fed-Up Liberal Prof Hits 'Tyranny of Spoiled Brats'".

The article is written by a University of Montana history professor and reprints appeared in Congressional Record and U.S. News and World Report.

New Orleans has had a recent confrontation of students and administration at Tulane University in New Orleans. Inasmuch as the springtime tends to be a period of student unrest in various colleges and universities throughout the country, New Orleans feels that the Xeroxing of this article and the anonymous mailing of same to selected colleges and universities within the New Orleans Division to the offices of the president of the respective institutions might tend to give these administrators some perspective towards the handling of student unrest in the future.

The Bureau is requested to grant authority for New Orleans to make these anonymous mailings to presidents and board members of selected colleges and universities within the State of Louisiana.

NOTE:

Dr. K. Ross Toole, a professor of history at the University of Montana, has written an article concerning the younger generation in which he states that it is time that the older generation takes a realistic look and deals with the behavior of the younger generation in a forceful manner. Toole points out that the older generation should be proud of its achievements and not develop feelings of guilt from accusations by the younger generation that it has failed. New Orleans suggested that the article be reproduced and mailed anonymously to selected college officials in the area.

The purpose of this suggestion is twofold:

- 1. It will solidify the status of with members of the New Left in the New Orleans area.
- 2. It will cause insecurity in the movement inasmuch as it will indicate to that the FBI has knowledge of the whereabouts and activities of all New Left members in the New Orleans area.

If the Bureau feels that no mention should be made regarding FBI interest in the explosion of the oil refineries in New Jersey over the weekend of 12/5 and 6/70, New Orleans can utilize another pretext--such as, the Bureau conducting an investigation regarding a bombing matter which occurred out of state over the weekend of 12/5 and 6/90.

The Cointelpro suggestion recommended in referenced communication has been carefully evaluated at the Seat of Government. It does not appear that interviews of and of the New Orleans Movement for a Democratic Society, would be of any great value as a Cointelprostep at this time. These interviews might serve to spotlight EBI interest in the forthcoming national convention of the Students for a Democratic Society/Worker Student Alliance (SDS/WSA) and have an adverse effect on informant's participation in the convention. It would appear that the proposed interviews be reconsidered after the national convention of SDS/WSA since the factions in this organization may be resolved. In view of the above the Bureau does not concur with your recommendation in referenced airtel at this time. You should reconsider the matter following the national convention of SDS/WSA and submit your recommendations at that time this matter closely and continue to submit recommendations under the Cointelpro.

Referenced Bureau communication reflected that the WSA/SDS National Convention held in Chicago, Ill., 12/27-30/70 was firmly controlled by the PLP and also noted that in view of this control counterintelligence opportunities are available to discredit the above revolutionary political party. The communication instructed receiving offices to contact informants who attended the convention and obtain details that would make suitable counterintelligence information against PLP.

For the information of the Bureau, two informants from this division, and attended the SDS National Convention in Chicago. These informants have been thoroughly debriefed and information obtained from them regarding individuals in attendance at the convention was furnished to the Bureau via LHM with New Orleans airtel to the Bureau dated 1/11/71 captioned "STUDENTS FOR ADEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE, IS - SDS." Information obtained regarding events occurring at the convention is presently being set forth in a form suitable for dissemination.

Extensive information regarding the lack of internal democracy in SDS, the authoritarian control exercised by PLP in the organization, PLP's politics, PLP's refusal to support other revolutionary groups, disillusionment with PLP and WSA/SDS by many of its members and the reasons therefore, the failure of SDS/WSA to obtain mass based student support, etc., is currently being set forth in the above-described LHM.

The following information regarding attendance at the convention, funds expended by PLP, and efforts by PLP to maintain control of the convention may be of particular interest.

convention SDS leaders commented that between 900 and 1,000 individuals registered for the convention. The above sources noted, however, that at no time were more than between 400 to 500 persons observed in attendance at the plenary sessions of the convention. The National Headquarters of SDS were observed registering youngsters from the neighborhood, and they were not charged a registration fee. It is estimated that as many as 200 individuals from the surrounding community were registered and that these individuals played no role at the convention.

The above sources also advised that in an effort to insure control of the convention and the organization, PLP spent substantial sums of money to bring individuals to Chicago. Specifically, SDS San Francisco, advised that PLP spent approximately $12,000 to charter a plane to bring approximately 150 to 200 SDS members from the West Coast to the convention. In addition, Negro male, SDS member in New Orleans, indicated that Guring the convention he conferred with a number of Negroes from Oakland, Calif. They advised that PLP members made arrangement with approximately 1:30° Negroes from Oakland to travel to the convention to support PLP proposals. These Negroes from Oakland informed that PLP paid their commercial air fare to Chicago and furnished to them spending money during the convention.

Regarding counterintelligence steps against PLP, this division noted that Bureau communication reflected the such information may be incorporated into a spurious news release or other position paper to bring it to the attention of WSA/SDS members

Regarding the above, this division suggests that the Bureau attempt to make available such information not only to WSA/SDS members but also to young persons and even campus workers who are targets of WSA/SDS and PLP recruiting efforts.

A great deal of pertinent information regarding WSA/SDS, such as PLP control of SDS, the lack of internal way democracy in the organization, PLP's life style, PLP's : 2004 politics, PLP's relationship with other revolutionary groups, the failure of SDS to obtain mass based student support, and the disillusionment among many PLP and WSA/SDS members with SDS and PLP is available to the Bureau. mation of this type, it is felt, is undoubtedly well known to individuals who function actively within SDS/WSA or PLP. These individuals accept and support the current situation: in the organization or they either work within an opposition Scaucuss in SDS, hoping to change the organization or they leave the organization entirely. It is thus felt that dissemination efforts to potential SDS/WSA-and PLP recruits would be considerably more fruitful thad dissemination efforts limited to WSA and PLP members.

During the coming months, SDS/WSA and PLP will attempt to recruit students and campus workers and put into effect their program. New Orleans feels that the Bureau could perform a substantial service to these young people and campus workers and ultimately the entire nation by incorporating pertinent information regarding SDS/WSA and PLP into a spurious news release or other appropriate paper.
